me: oh, good
me: so, they're releasing a new Goldeneye for the Wii Caleb: Maybe I'll buy a TV.
me: so you can rent Atlas Shrugged from Blockbuster?
me: good idea
Caleb: Jesus.
Caleb: We got a phone call from a lady complaining about a piece we ran that had a clip of some Democratic congresswoman criticizing the Bush administration on "Meet the Press."
Caleb: (sot: Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz/ (D) Florida/"NBC/MEET THE PRESS")
"They were going on trips with them, taking vacations, even sleeping with them."
Caleb: Whoops.
Caleb: Starts out like this:
Caleb: CRITICS SAY YEARS OF LAX OVERSIGHT FROM THE GOVERNMENT'S MINERALS MANAGEMENT SERVICE ALLOWED THE OIL INDUSTRY TO GET TOO COZY WITH THEIR REGULATORS BEFORE THE DISASTER.
Caleb: (sot: Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz/ (D) Florida/"NBC/MEET THE PRESS")
Caleb: "They were going on trips with them, taking vacations, even sleeping with them."
me: sleeping with them, eh?
me: like Palin does with a former BP employee?
me: OH SNAP CONTRADICTION THE CONSERVATIVE MOVEMENT IS OVER!
Caleb: My boss told me to be cut stuff like that out of any packages we pull from the network.
Caleb: He told me to be all cuttin' stuff like that out.
me: he had to tell you that?
me: thought it was implied
Caleb: Apparently, I was a little bit gray on the whole acknowledging the existence of multiple points of view on certain complex and nuanced issues.
me: do me a solid
me: pick up a case of dr. pepper
Caleb: Do yourself a solid.
Caleb: Walk half a mile to the store.
me: they don't have cases or six packs at any of those stores
me: otherwise I would Caleb: Define "case."
me: like, 12 cans of dr. pepper
Caleb: First off, that's not a case.
Caleb: A case is 24.
Caleb: So get your facts straight.
Caleb: Secondly, of course they have 12-packs.
Caleb: Grocery stores don't not have 12-packs.

me: there's no grocery store around here
me: there is Walgreens
me: wait
me: wait
me: maybe...
Caleb: You dumb fucking dumb idiot.
me: just maybe...
me: maybe they do have them!
me: I'm going to go check it out, old friend!

me: oh snap!
Caleb: There was a ghost in my apartment last night.
Caleb: I'm convinced.
Caleb: And I don't even believe in ghosts.
Caleb: But my dog saw it.
Caleb: Talk about craziness!
me: wait, what?
me: is that why your cat wouldn't shut the fuck up?
Caleb: No.
Caleb: Dumb-bitch Florida reporter.
me: maybe it was the ayatollah
me: maybe it was the ayatollah
me: maybe it was the ayatollah
me: maybe it was the ayatollah
Caleb: Maybe it _was_ the ayatollah.
me: got morrowind running
me: got me some dr. pepper me: wrote a piece on atlas shrugged and sent to vanity fair me: gotta re-write skeptic column
me: then I'm done for the day
me: and I leave Tyler for the land of MORROWIND me: in my MIND
Caleb: I just wrote a piece about how awful it is that the _Washington Post_ doesn't like Glenn Beck's new novel.
me: see if you can get a review copy of that Caleb: I bet I could.
Caleb: Probably just have to call the publisher, right?
me: yep
me: I imagine it's probably Regnery
me: or, nah
me: it'll sell
